A Day in Hollywood, A Night in the Ukraine

Presented by Henrico Theatre Company

A musical revue with books and lyrics by Dick Vosburgh and the music by Frank Lazarus.

In this night of magic, Act One is a nostalgic spoof of the movies of the 1930s and Act Two is the comedy the Marx Brothers didn't make, but could have. Splendidly funny and remarkably clever, this evening of entertainment is inspired by lunacy and hilarious nonsense!

Times: Thurs - Sat 8pm; Sat, July 18 & 25, 2:30 & 8pm; Sun, 2:30pm

Admission: $10 adults; $8 seniors (55+) and students

Mon, July 20

The Lost Half Hour

Presented by Henrico Teen Theatre Company

In this one-act fairy tale, Bobo is a simple lad who is the subject of much ridicule. No one in the land expects that he will actually find a lost half-hour. But the boy returns victorious, having found not only the errant half-hour, but a lost temper, a lost reputation, and a lost princess as well. Fun for the entire family!
